

Grantham Library

Thursday February 6th 2020 will see the sixth annual Harry Potter Book Night celebrated throughout the world and at Grantham Library we are getting ready to host magical events themed around the Triwizard tournament.

At these events young Witches, Wizards and Muggles will enjoy themed games and crafts. The Sorting Hat will decide your House then you can partake in spellbinding crafts and a quiz to test your wizarding knowledge!

There will be three events, the first of which will be run on Thursday 6th February at Grantham Library. The next events will be held on Saturday 8th February and Monday 10th February. All sessions are free of charge (although a donation towards craft materials would be gratefully received). Booking is essential as places are limited.

Get your free ticket from Grantham Library at anytime before the 5th February.

Please note those without a ticket will unfortunately be turned away.
