

Barrowby Church of England Primary School

January 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

We are currently looking to recruit a skilled, enthusiastic and flexible Breakfast Club Supervisor and After School Club Supervisor, who are hardworking and energetic, and who has high expectations of pupils and a good sense of humour and fun. If interested, the breakfast club and after school club roles can be fulfilled by the same candidate – please specify which role(s) you are interested in on your application form.

At Barrowby CE Primary School we aim to create a happy, encouraging and challenging environment, where we strive for excellence in teaching and learning, and where we help our children to achieve the highest possible standards and to come to terms with the world around them. We value our caring, friendly family atmosphere within which we set high standards of behaviour and good manners. We believe this is in keeping with the ethos of a church school.

We feel this helps us to provide positive and rewarding experiences with equality of opportunity for all. We strive to prepare our children for a fulfilling role in society, and believe that the partnership between home, school and the community is central to preparing our children for the adult world. We have high expectations and standards, and encourage our children to reach them by teaching a broad based and relevant curriculum.

Duties will include:

- To register and supervise pupils.
- Purchasing and serving of healthy snacks, food and drinks
- Promoting the physical, emotional, educational and social development of the pupils.
- Safely manage and organize small group activities.
