At Barrowby CE Primary School, we take great pride in our Pastoral Care and the holistic support we offer to pupils, their parents, and wider families. Our commitment to fostering a nurturing and inclusive environment is underpinned by our core values of creativity, respect, and independence.

It is heartening to note that all respondents agreed our school is a caring and supportive place. This was also powerfully affirmed in our most recent SIAMs Inspection, where the Inspector observed, “Barrowby CE Primary School emanates care and love.

School Aim: To achieve a high standard in individual care, and in all our relationships, within a well disciplined, secure and supportive environment in which all feel happy and valued.

Thank you for your comments.

It is deeply encouraging to note that all respondents agreed our school has helped their child(ren) become creative, respectful, and independent learners who are well-prepared for Secondary School. This reflects our vision that every member of our school family feels happy, valued, and loved.

These strengths were powerfully affirmed in our most recent Ofsted inspection, where Barrowby CE Primary School was judged Outstanding in all five areas:

- Quality of Education
- Behaviour and Attitudes
- Personal Development
- Leadership and Management
- Early Years Provision

School Aim: To plan for and use the school's available resources as effectively as possible.

The school uses the available resources well	Strongly Agree	100%

Thank you for your comments.

We are continually evaluating our school's provision and enhancing the offer for all.

Parent comments:

All respondents were extremely complimentary of Barrowby CE Primary School, consistently highlighting the excellent progress made by all children across the curriculum. One parent expressed particular satisfaction with their child's progress in Maths, while another shared how much their child had enjoyed their final year at the school. Many parents commented on how well their children were understood and supported, reflecting the school's strong commitment to nurturing individual needs and fostering a positive, inclusive learning environment.

Notably, there were no suggestions for development or improvement from respondents, which speaks volumes about the high levels of satisfaction and trust in the school.

This overwhelmingly positive feedback exemplifies the strength of our relationships with families and the effectiveness of our approach to education and care.

It also powerfully reflects our school's vision—that every child feels happy, valued, and loved—and aligns with our core values of creativity, respect, and independence.

Yours sincerely
